

Press Release

November 28, 2016

Los Robles Children's Choir to Perform Holiday Wonder Concert

Thousand Oaks, California – November 28, 2016 – Celebrating its special 20th anniversary season, Los Robles Children's Choir (LRCC), will perform its "Holiday Wonder – Peace and Love" concert on Saturday, December 17th at the Samuelson Chapel at California Lutheran University (CLU) in Thousand Oaks, CA.

The four LRCC choirs – Apprentice, Bel Canto, Amadeus, and Camerata – and special guest artists from Los Cerritos Middle School Concert Choir will perform works from Bach to Stephen Schwartz as well as traditional carols and Hebrew songs in this celebration of diverse holiday season music. The choirs will sing music in a broad range of languages including French, Latin, and Hebrew in addition to English. Visit singingchildren.org to experience LRCC's musical excellence via recordings of past performances.

There will be two concert events: A 3:00pm concert will feature LRCC's Bel Canto, Amadeus and Camerata choirs plus Los Cerritos Middle School Concert Choir. A 7:00pm concert will also feature LRCC's Apprentice Choir (ages 6-8).

Tickets for "Holiday Wonder – Peace and Love" are $20 for adults and $15 for seniors or students. Tickets can be purchased online at singingchildren.org beginning December 1st. The Samuelson Chapel at CLU is located at 165 Chapel Lane in Thousand Oaks.

About Los Robles Children's Choir

Los Robles Children's Choir (LRCC) includes over 100 children ages 6-18 from over 45 schools across Ventura County. All four choirs of our ensembles assist children in developing their vocal, aural, musical and choral skills. LRCC's rigorous training program includes weekly rehearsals, where vocal technique, stage presence, musicianship skills, and teamwork are regularly taught. LRCC, under Artistic Director Edward Rouse, is recognized for its choral artistry and excellent musicianship. Founded in 1997 by Donna Young, LRCC not only performs their own concerts in the Conejo Valley, but collaborates with Los Robles Master Chorale and the New West Symphony. The children have sung under the direction of many world-renown conductors including Paul Salamunovich, Sir David Willcocks, Henry Leck, Z. Randall Stroope, Vance George and David Flood. LRCC has sung in London, Canterbury, Salzburg, Vienna, Prague, and Mainz, Denver, and Carnegie Hall in New York City. LRCC is a non-profit organization funded by individuals, parents, foundations, and corporations. For more information, please visit singingchildren.org or email info@singingchildren.org.

###

Press Contact

Ralph Santitoro
(805) 694-8674

Ralph@SingingChildren.org